Notes: Copy of two papal bulls related to the same canonate and prebend, one addressed to the recipient and one addressed to the church of Worms. The break between the two texts is marked with an equal sign (=). The date and place where the copy was produced are not mentioned. However, it was probably copied in Germany since both original bulls were directed to German recipients. The texts are both dated 1763 o.s. A note at the bottom of f.2v mentions the date 18 June 1764, at which point the copy had certainly been completed. f.2v also has a note about the content in pencil in a modern hand; the call number "MS 37/33" in pencil in a modern hand; and a Union Theological Seminary library stamp.
